The GJWF cable is made by placing several coloured fibers in LSZH miniature cluster tubes and spirally twisting them around a non-metallic tensile element (aramid) to form a stable circular core, which is then wrapped with a layer of water-blocking tape and a symmetrical ripcord on the outer sheath. the limitations of traditional cabling. projects! for our cables! planning of your installations! the ideal length for each of your projects. The unique fiber excess length control method provides the cable with excellent mechanical and environmental properties. Mainly used for distribution and access network.
